"The Clue"

Dear Ann,

These past two years have been a riot. Remember all the stupid things we did, in gym with the worms, and all kinds of messing around. I'll never forget the time we went to Cornell! We have had many good times, at Eddies, "Goo Goo's" and at the Ball, and at my Parties.

Ann, I hope that when you get to college you'll enjoy yourself. And get all of the best there is, that you deserve.

I hope that our friendships will continue through the many long years to come. Stay the way you are and your life will be filled with constant joy + happiness. Best wishes to you in the future

God Bless you.

Love,
"The Clue"

Ann, future may your be as bright as your smile. Have a great goal and I hope all your plans and dreams come true. It's been wonderful knowing you. Good luck and best wishes always.

SUE SOKOL

Silver, a useless metal in its natural state, is refined through long, intricate processing to reveal beautiful luster and true usefulness. In like manner, high school students undergo refining processes toward achieving fulfillment of themselves in service to mankind. On the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Benjamin Franklin High School, The Class of 1955 dedicates the silver KEY to all Franklinites who prove the worth of their training through the years.

Shorts Story

Last Will and Testament

We, the Silver Anniversary Class of Benjamin Franklin High School, being of limited sanity (thanks to the five years of struggling to become seniors) and having contemplated a just distribution of our wealth, do hereby bequeath all of our earthly possessions and some of our unearthly ones in the following manner:

To Mr. Sabin, who has guided us through the past five years, we leave a package of silver-plated memories and our heartfelt thanks for all his help.

To Mr. Francis we award a contract with N. B. C. allowing him the use of their chimes to wake up the students in homeroom.

To Miss Sullivan and Mr. Applebee we leave a large economy-sized bottle of Bufferin and a game of Scrabble that will spell out our "Thanks."

To all senior homeroom teachers we bequeath Dr. Mock's book entitled How to Bring Up Children.

To Miss Martens we leave three dozen new, long candles for National Honor Society inductions, and a secretary to write out tardiness slips.

To Mr. Stalker we bequeath a motor scooter to use in recruiting a clean-up staff for next year, and an electric eye to detect those questionable passes.

To Miss Primer, next year's senior adviser, we give permission to sell the left-over potato chips from our dances — "'cause you can't hardly get them kind no more."

To Mr. Cohen, also next year's adviser, we leave our left-over pop to go with the left-over potato chips.

To Miss Rauber we reward a two weeks' vacation in Sulphur Springs sanitarium, and a supply of 1956 catalogs.

To Mr. Remington we leave a troupe of male hams for next year's senior play, and our appreciation for a terrific production this year.

To Mr. Taylor we bequeath a jar of polish for his Phi Beta Kappa pin.

To Mr. Miller we leave a hurricane insurance policy, and permission to take his chem. students to a square dance so they can learn how to "change partners."

To Mr. DeFran we leave a contract with the Royals, and a package of ready-mixed tortillas.

To Mr. Chamberlain we bequeath a new pool cue for that mysterious room in the basement.

To Mr. Iman we bequeath a new bunny bag for his bucks, and the traumatic surprise that we didn't leave him a pink shirt.

To Mr. Maurer we leave a chisel and a gallon of paint remover to take off red paint.

To Mr. Lyders we leave a free pass to hear a performance of Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians and the hope that some day . . .

To the lunchroom staff we bequeath a set of sterling silver to be used only at our class reunions.

To Miss Levin we leave a new bunch of seniors who will "hush their clack" as well as we do.

To Mr. Betten we bequeath a mechanical brain to solve all "profound computations."

To Mr. Kehrig we present some plaid Bermuda shorts and a pair of red knee socks for his future college days.

To Miss Crowley we leave a sound-proof room and a new set of square pegs to go into round holes.

To Mr. Scammell we bequeath a dry Memorial Day and a year's subscription to Downbeat magazine.

To our pal, Herman, we leave a souped-up hot-rod snow plow.

To Mr. Zornow we bequeath a set of typewriters that don't make mistakes so the commercial students can all get "A's."

To the incoming Eighth Graders we give a compass and a book entitled Sense of Direction.

To the present Eighth Graders we leave a pamphlet on How to Do 10 Hours of Homework in 30 Minutes.

To the present Freshmen we leave a beat-up copy of A Tale of Two Cities and the hypotenuse rule.

To the present Sophomores we leave the vain hope of persuading Miss Carnahan that American History Special just isn't for them.

To the present Juniors—You've arrived!

This document has been duly witnessed and signed this twenty-ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, by the Senior class of Benjamin Franklin High School. The terms of this document are to be administered by Palleschi, Colonna, Easton, Barrett, Wolf, and Sokol—Attorneys at Law.

To my one and only Anne,

Well kid that end of the line seems to be here. But I don't think our line will ever give up.

All I can say is that its been one hell of a time!

I learn Buck Wheat to Lean and best of all Martin weder had a ball. Those days in the bajo john with Buck Wheat were tremendous — believe me. And those nites at the Library with Lean were terrific.

But Most of All was Martin. She's superb, and he's got it. My house will never be the same without him.

And last of all is you, Anne. From that first exotic nite to the last I knew it was you. Sure I did & sure you did. And oh, how naughty, but nice.

Remember Ma, also — "Let's see what you got — (soooo big)." And that "Son of a Gun-Screwy" Pa.

Gee, I wish it didn't have to end. But thats life and things are tough all-over. Sound familiar"

Sincerely,
"All My Love"
